

You can live with confidence when you realize that...

If the enemy can't get to you, he will go after those most connected to you (1-5)

The Lord will fight your battles with, and often for you (6-11)

When you are in the will of God, you may call on and expect His supernatural help (12-15)

God will ultimately make a public display of all his enemies (16-28)

Questions for Discussion:

Have you observed times when the enemy has gone after you, or someone connected to you?

If so, how did he attack you/them?

What did you learn about resisting him?

Have you observed the Lord fight your battle?

How did He fight for you?

What did you learn about the spiritual battle?

Have you observed the Lord provide you supernatural help?

If so, what did He do?

What did you learn about the Lord?

Where do you need His help today?
