

Celibacy for singles and sexual fulfillment for marrieds are both a necessary part of God's design. (1-2)

Sexually pleasing your spouse is an obligation required by God. (3-4)

Never withhold sex in marriage, unless it meets all three of God's concessions. (5-6)

View your present life circumstance, as single or married, as a gift from God. (7)

Questions for Discussion:

In what ways is immorality promoted in our culture today?

What are some ways a Christian can keep from becoming ensnarled in it?

What can cause one's perspective concerning sex to be a duty to be grudgingly fulfilled?

What can transform one's perspective concerning sex from mere duty to our spouse to a privilege?

What are some unbiblical reasons people might give for withholding sex?

What can a husband or wife do to affair proof their marriage?

What can a single adult do to protect their gift?