

- Knowing God’s standards of holiness differs from living them. (10-14)
- Living unholy and expecting God’s blessing is futile. (15-17)
- Prioritizing a life that is set apart for God renews opportunities for His blessing. (18-19)

Questions for Discussion:

How would you explain to someone the difference between positional, practical and ultimate sanctification?

What in your experience has most helped you grow in your practical sanctification?

What are some ways we see “bad company corrupting good morals” of Christians today?

Are there people in your life that are tempting you to compromise your pursuit of holiness?

If so, how will you “manage” these relationships “from this day on?”

What are some ways God “blesses” His people?

How can “unholy” living impede our receiving of God’s blessings?

Are there particular blessings you have been waiting on for a while? If so, what?

Have you seen unexpected “blessings” come in the midst of your waiting? If so, what?
