

God's approval requires consistent faithfulness with...

- 1. Sound Doctrine (14-19)
- 2. Readiness (20-21)
- 3. Conduct (22-26)

Questions for Discussion:

Do you know "religious" people who would not agree with Pastor Jeff's "seven statements worth dying for?"
If so, what statement(s) would they disagree with?
How would you respond to them?

Do you know people who would agree with the seven statements, but would add additional statements and dispute with others over them as if they are more important than the seven statements?
What would they argue about?
How would you respond to them?

What would disqualify a Christian from being useful to the Master?
What would impede a Christian from being ready for every good work?
Are you useful and ready for every good work for the Master?
If not, what disqualifies or impedes you from serving Him this week?

Why are the character qualities listed in 2:24-25 so important when seeking to help someone?
What could the result be from one who doesn't have these qualities?
Is there a specific quality that you believe God would want you to work on?
If so, which one? Why?
