

When it comes to your Christian liberty...

Flee from idolatry because the Lord is jealous for your love. (14-22)

Enjoy God's world by making choices that edify others. (23-30)

Glorify God in all circumstances by learning from His Word and other disciples. (31-11:1)

Questions for Discussion:

What are some common idols – things people love more than Jesus Christ – of our day?

Is there something you love more than Jesus Christ?

What will it look like for you to “de-throne” that idol this week?

What are some things we could enjoy with our liberty that are not expressly forbidden in Scripture?

What are some ways that enjoying these things could cause harm to others?

Are there people that are being harmed by you exercising your freedom?

What do you need to change this week to edify rather than harm them?

Who are some Christians God has placed in your life that are examples worth mimicking?

What specifically do you appreciate about their lives that you can learn from?

Is there something specific from their example you can put into practice this week?
